The noble Marquis of Queensberry attended during the week at a representation of Mr. Tonnyson's new drawn, which is conceded to be the worst play that has been brought out here in many years. Mr. Tennyson holds up a freethinker to public odium as the motive of his play. The Marquis promptly denounced the Laurente during the first act, and on the fall of the curtain made a violent, impassioned harangue to the Frederick William and his Consort Victoria, at audience. It made a great sensation, but I their approaching silver wedding, January 25th, His Grace was put out of the theatre. The with a complete set for the dialog-room, toaffair has become the occasion of widespread discussions in print and out of it. Free-thinkers are gathering to His Lordships's support, and Mr. Tennyson is abused more than he was by the dramatic critics, and we are having it out according to the new Queensberry rules. The Marquis says in the daily papers :-- 'I am a for Germany to excite unison a coinst En seoularist and free-thinker, and, though I repudiste it, a so-called atheist, and as President of poses England and that England never op the British Secular Union, I protest against Mr. Tanzasa a abereinable samestare of an individual whom I presume he would have us believe represents some body of people which, thanks to the good of humanity, most certainly does not exist among free-thinkers." The Marquis' sister, the Lady Gertrade Donias, has scandalized society during the week by the disclosure of her marriage to a bater. From S. JEMNINGS, Esq., Late Vice-President of the Agri-Hortl Society of India. "With reference to your mode of packing seeds for export, I must say how much I was gratified with the mystem you wore so good as to show me. During the whole of my long Indian experience it was my conwant regret that English pacted seeds were almost invariably lower in germinating power than the American. After seeing the elaborate precantions you take in executing such orders as that of the Agri-Horti Society of India, I am by no means surprised to hear that you have been gratified by the receipt of so much testimony from the tropics as to the condi-tion of your seeds upon arrival. If your correspon-dents are only careful not to open their tin cases until the seed is to be sown, I have no doubt the contents will be found in excellent condition."
